Key Achievements

Mr. Wu Xingrui has been specializing in civil and commercial litigation, corporate legal affairs, and criminal defense. He has handled many civil and criminal cases that had a significant impact in the local area. In particular, he handled several land dispute cases for a unit of the Chinese People's Liberation Army in Tianjin and was praised and commended by the military leaders in charge of the PLA. Meanwhile, by being engaged as legal counsel for the army, enterprises and public institutions or otherwise, we shall constantly explore new working methods of legal counsel, maintain routine legal relations for traditional enterprises and provide various more high-end legal services in the capital market such as IPO for emerging scale enterprises.
