Key Achievements

Attorney Ji specializes in corporate and commercial law, international investment/ financing, restructuring and M&A, real estate and construction engineering, finance, and government legal advisory. With a profound understanding and strong expertise in these areas, she excels in commercial negotiation and communication, backed by extensive experience in both litigation and non-litigation matters. Currently, she serves as a perennial or specialized legal advisor to multiple financial institutions, enterprises, government departments, industry associations, and chambers of commerce. Her clients include internationally and domestically renowned entities with significant industry influence.

Ms Ji was selected as a "Leading Talent in Chinese International Lawyers" by the Ministry of Justice, and dispatched to study at the China-EU School of Law at University of Hamburg and the American Society of International Law in 2013 and 2017, respectively. Recognized as one of China's 'Top Ten Lawyers for the Belt and Road Compliance Projects' by the Committee of Political and Legal Affairs of the CPC Central Committee and Legal Daily, she has been praised by Wang Junfeng, President of the National Bar Association, who stated: "Confronting formidable opponents, she never backs down; navigating through intricate contracts, she unravels complexities effortlessly. Innovative thinking is her eternal winning strategy. As a leading figure in China's international legal arena and one of the top ten lawyers for the Belt and Road Initiative, she earns clients' trust through diligence and demonstrates the confidence of Chinese lawyers through her competence."
