HUA Ping

Partner

+8610-85879199
phua@anlilaw.com

Location：
Beijing

Language：
Chinese and English

Qualification：
Legal Professional
Qualification Certificate
Chinese Lawyer
Practicing Certificate

Working Experience

· 2017/06 — to Present, Beijing Anli Partners
· 2004/10-2017/06, Zhong Lun Law Firm

Education Background

· LL.B., School of Law, Peking University (with a specialization in economic and international economic law)

Areas

M&A and Restructuring of Company, Resolution of Commercial Disputes, Bankruptcy Reorganization, and Liquidation of Company

Key Achievements

Hua Ping, Partner & Associate Attorney with more than ten years of business practice, focuses on high-end commercial dispute resolution and foreign-related commercial dispute resolution in the fields of corporate equity, financial guarantee, private equity, and franchise. Hua Ping has participated as the agent of many well-known multinational companies, including ITT Company, Microsoft Corporation, Fuji Xerox, ARC Capital, Global Press, Accor, Korea KTF Corporation, Korea SK Corporation, and MARUBENI.

Handling of commercial disputes involved in the case. Hua Ping has represented more than one hundred cases before the Supreme People's Court, China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission and Beijing Arbitration Commission. Hua Ping has also served as the legal counsel of China Poly Group Company, China National Aviation Group Finance Co., Ltd. and other large central government-owned enterprises, and is familiar with the investment decision-making procedures of central government-owned enterprises. Hua Ping also has extensive experience in the area of M&A and restructuring, bankruptcy, and restructuring/liquidation, and has participated in several equity/asset acquisition and restructuring projects involving China Poly Group Company, China Cable Network Co., Ltd. and IKA Group, the bankruptcy and restructuring project of Dalian STX and the bankruptcy and restructuring project of Shanxi Liansheng Group.