

Yongwei Li

Lawyer

0371-88958789
liyongwei@anlilaw.com

Location:
Zhengzhou

Language:
Chinese

Qualification:

Working Experience

- April 2019 — Present Attorney, Beijing Anli (Zhengzhou) Partners
- July 2013 — March 2019 Attorney, Henan Tuanjie Law Firm

Educational Background

- 2009 — 2013 Bachelor of Laws, Zhoukou Normal University

Areas

Civil and Commercial Litigation and Arbitration, Real Estate and Construction Projects, Criminal Defense, Corporate Counsel

Key Achievements

- case on the dispute over the treatment of occupational diseases of retired employees of an employer, in which the employer failed to safeguard its rights for more than ten years. After five years and the employer experienced multiple labor arbitration and litigation, most of the treatment of occupational diseases has been granted, and the employer's life and medical treatment have been practically guaranteed.
- A university sued Beijing Technology Development Co., Ltd. over a series of contract dispute cases, litigation and non-litigation methods were developed simultaneously, and the case was finally closed through mediation and fully performed by the defendant.
- Huang, Wu, Shao et al. filed a series of cases against China Construction Bank, Bank of China, etc. whose bank cards were illegally swiped.
- The case of Zhoukou Branch of Postal Savings Bank v. Yin Bowen et al. over ship mortgage contract disputes is subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Maritime Court.
- In the case of Zhoukou Shengda Gas Company filed a lawsuit against the Provincial Government over the dispute over the administrative approval reply, the stakeholders should be strictly defined and the illegal interests should not be supported. The litigation procedures included administrative reconsideration, first instance, second instance, and retrial.
- Kang was suspected of contract fraud, in which the public security authorities of Sichuan intervened in the economic dispute by criminal means, with a maximum detention period of 37 days and no arrest approved.
- Yuan of Shandong Province committed the crime of fraud (suspended sentence).
- Wang in Xinxiang committed the crime of illegal absorption of members of the public, for which the conviction and sentencing should be based on the actual amount instead of the contract amount. The sentence was commuted for two years in the second instance.

- Wang was suspected of the crime of producing and selling food failing to meet safety standards (suspended sentence).
- Liu was suspected of the crime of illegally providing answers (the crime was changed and a suspended sentence was given).